WHILE YOU'RE HERE

Explore Independence Seaport Museum's two floors of exhibits, Seaport Boat Shop, National Historic Landmark ships: Cruiser Olympia and Submarine Becuna. Looking to explore more? Check out our small boat rentals, Paddle Penn's Landing, located in the basin behind the Museum. Or for the landlubbers, stop by River Alive!'s Citizen Science Lab and Fisharium for daily science demonstrations. With so much family fun, there is something for everyone. For more information on your visit and what ISM has to offer, visit phillyseaport.org.

GUEST EXPECTATIONS

- Effective Wednesday, August 12, per the City of Philadelphia's new mandate, everyone entering the building and historic ships will need to wear a mask, regardless of vaccination status.
- Hand sanitizing stations are setup throughout both the Museum and historic ships
- The consumption of food and beverage, and smoking are not permitted
- Regular, daily cleaning has been increased, specifically for those components that are high interactivity
- Photography, without flash, is encouraged inside the Museum and aboard the historic ships
- Please be considerate of others when using phones

ACCESSIBILITY

The main building of Independence Seaport Museum is wheelchair and stroller accessible, including our restrooms. Restrooms are located on the ground floor of the Museum's main building, down the hall off of the lobby before the coat room. Our historic ships, Cruiser Olympia and Submarine Becuna, are not currently ADA accessible and have no restrooms.
