

LEADERSHIP & TEAMBUILDING RETREATS

 Independence Seaport Museum

Looking for teambuilding and leadership development programs that make a splash?

Spend the day on the water while fine-tuning your communication, collaboration, and other 21st Century skills. And for all you landlubbers, try our land-based workshops!

At Independence Seaport Museum, our teambuilding workshops and retreats are a one-of-a-kind on-water experience that will transform coworkers into team members. Whether you pick a workshop for the most apprehensive sailor or a full-day retreat for your fiercest swashbuckler, your crew will leave connected and ready to thrive in the office.

Book today!

Choose an adventure your team will still be talking about at next year's holiday party!

WORKSHOPS

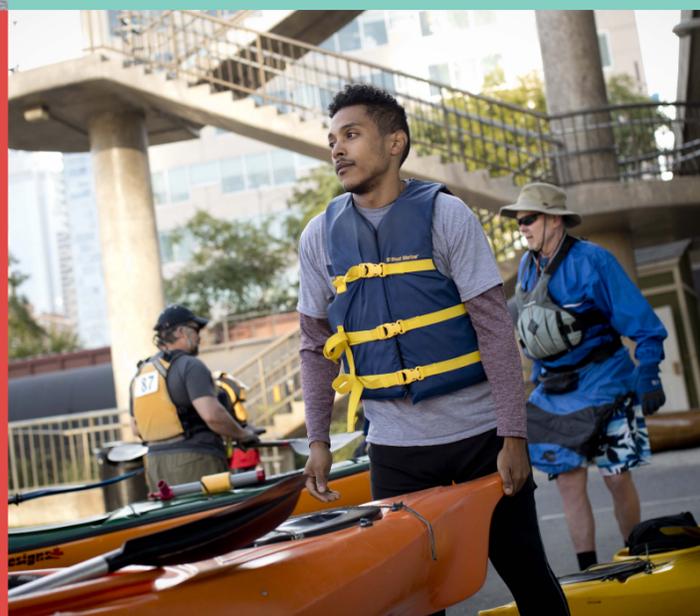

THREE HOUR WORKSHOPS

$1,200 for up to 12 people. After 12 people, it's an additional $35/person

- ▶ Land-Based Workshops: Interested in the magic of the sea, but hesitant to leave the land? Advance the communication, problem-solving, and leadership skills of your team through challenges like Keep the River Alive!, Batten the Hatches, or Decoding Signs of the Seal! Interested in practicing a particular skill set? Let us custom design a workshop for you.
- ▶ Whaleboat Workshop: In this water-based adventure, you're all in the same boat—literally! Take a risk with your team and practice collaboration, commitment, and communication through group rowing.
- ▶ Boating in the Basin: Is your team stuck in the doldrums? Cheer them up with an afternoon of excitement with Paddling Penn's Landing! Kayaks, swans and row boats make our basin easy to explore for even the most apprehensive sailor.
